Q11: I had revalidated my COC in 2013/2014 after complying with all the requirements such as RUT course, refresher courses and other courses. However my COC was revalidated up to 31st Dec 2016 only, due to some administrative reasons. How can I extend the validity of my COC to full five years?

Ans: Prior to 1st Jan 2015, all the certificates were issued or revalidated up to 31st Dec 2016 only. However, subsequent to the notification of M.S. (STCW) Rules 2014, from 1st Jan 2015 onwards, all the certificates are being issued with a validity of full five year period.

In your case, the validity of the COC can be extended up to five years from the date of completion of Refresher and Updating (RUT) training course, by the MMD, without doing any additional courses. But you need to obtain the 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator' if the same was not obtained earlier.

For example if you had completed your RUT course on 15th November 2014 then the validity of your COC will be extended up to 14th November 2019.

You need to submit the same application online for 'Revalidation of COC' as mentioned in Question No.4

Q12: I am presently undergoing a RUT course in one of the DGS approved institute. Is it compulsory to submit the application for revalidation of COC only through the institute? OR Can I submit the application to the MMD directly upon completion of the RUT course?

Ans: No. The CoC of a seafarer can be revalidated using DG Shipping online services. Apply online using the registered ID and password. Online application to be filled in along with online fees (e-payment)

Q13. My Certificate of Competency (COC) is expiring after 5 months and I have done my revalidation/up-gradation courses as per STCW 2010 now. Will my COC be revalidated for 5 years from the date of expiry of my present COC or it will be from the date I completed my revalidation course?

Ans: Normally the COCs are being revalidated for a period of five years from the date of completion of Refresher and Up-gradation course (RUT) under STCW 2010. However, in order to encourage renewal of COC before its expiry date, under the revised provisions of STCW, currently COCs are being revalidated for a period of five years from the date of expiry of COC, if an officer is applying for revalidation within six months prior to its expiry.

Hence in your case the COC will be re-validated for a further period of five years from the date of expiry marked in the COC and not from the date of completion of RUT course.

Q14: At present I have the valid GMDSS GOC issued by the Ministry of Communications and STCW endorsement of GMDSS (valid or expired) issued by the MMD few years back. How do I get the new 'Indian COC as GMDSS Radio Operator' which is essential for revalidating my COC as Master or Deck officer?

Ans: Firstly you need to ensure your GMDSS GOC issued by the Ministry of Communications is valid. If it is not valid, you should make an application to the WPC wing for renewal of GMDSS certificate. Please bear in mind that normally it takes around 30 days for obtaining a renewal sticker for GMDSS from WPC. The GMDSS CoC of a seafarer can be obtained using DG Shipping online services. Apply online using the registered ID and password. Online application to be filled in along with online fees (e-payment)

Q15: My GMDSS certificate is valid. Can you briefly explain the requirements for obtaining the 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator' from MMD?

Directorate General of Shipping, Mumbai
Examination, Assessment and Certification (EAC) Branch

Ans: You need to have the following:

- a. Valid GMDSS GOC issued by the WPC wing of the Ministry of Communications. (Provisional certificate can also be accepted in case of newly certified officers.)
- b. Copy of valid medical fitness certificate
- c. Evidence of Minimum one year of sea service in the preceding five years performing Radio Communication duties. In absence of sea service, evidence of equivalent service ashore performing Radio Communication duties can also be accepted.
- d. Alternatively, If you do not have the required sea service or equivalent service ashore in the last five years then you need to complete the GMDSS course again and submit the course completion certificate for obtaining or renewing your 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator'
- e. The 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator' can be obtained using DG Shipping online services. Apply online using the registered ID and password. Online application to be filled in along with online fees (e-payment)

Q16: How many days will it take to obtain my COC as GMDSS Radio Operator?

Ans: The 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator' is dispatched to the candidate's registered postal address by speed post within two working days.

Q17: I need to revalidate my Master's COC. For that I need to get my GMDSS COC also. Is it possible for me to apply both at the same time to avoid multiple visits to the MMD?

Answer: Yes. If you have already complied with all the other requirements such as RUT course, refresher courses, ECDIS course, SSO/STSDSD course, etc., then you can submit the application for revalidation and application for GMDSS COC simultaneously online. You will get both the revalidated COC and Indian GMDSS COC within two working days together.

Q18: Presently, I have valid STCW GMDSS endorsement which expired on 31st Dec 2016. Do I still need to get the new Indian COC, as GMDSS Radio Operator, for the purpose of revalidating my COC as Master or Deck officer?

Ans: Yes. In order to revalidate and upgrade your COC with validity beyond 31st Dec 2016, it is essential to obtain the new 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator' now. Your existing STCW GMDSS endorsement will be cancelled upon issuance of 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator.'

Q19: I have a UK GMDSS certificate. Can I obtain a 'COC as GMDSS Radio operator' from India?

Ans: No. You should renew your GMDSS endorsement from UK MCA only. Also, there is no need for you to obtain 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator' from India.

Q20: What is the difference between 'STCW endorsement on GMDSS' which was issued before, and the 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator' which is being issued now?

Answer: As far as seafarers are concerned, the purpose of both remains same. Subsequent to the '2010 Manila Amendments to the STCW Convention,' the status of GMDSS qualification has been changed from 'Certificate of Proficiency' to 'Certificate of Competency.' Hence the nomenclature of the certificate has been changed to 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator.' From 1st Jan 2017, all the deck officers must hold 'COC as GMDSS Radio Operator' instead of 'STCW endorsement on GMDSS.'

Apply online using the registered ID and password. Online application to be filled in along with online fees (e-payment)

Q23: How many days will it take to obtain a new COP for tanker cargo operations (erstwhile called as DCE) or renew my DCE?

Ans: The COP is dispatched to the candidate’s registered postal address by speed post within two working days.

Q24: I have multiple DCEs i.e. for more than one type of tankers. Can I renew all of them at the same time? OR I need to apply for DCEs for more than one type of tankers. Can I apply for multiple DCEs at the same time?

Ans: Yes. You can apply for multiple DCEs i.e COPs for more than one type of tankers online. However you need to pay the additional fees for each COP separately or collectively.

Q25: Do I need to submit the copy of medical fitness certificate to the MMD for obtaining the DCE or COP in Tanker cargo operations?

Ans: No. You need not submit any medical certificate for obtaining the Certificate of Proficiency in Tanker Cargo operations.

Q26: I have a COC issued by UK or other countries recognized by India. Can I get a COP in Tanker cargo operations (erstwhile DCE)?

Answer: No. You are required to obtain the COP in tanker cargo operations only from the country which has issued your COC.

However, if you have been issued with Indian COE for sailing onboard Indian ships then COP in Tanker Cargo operations will be issued by the MMD for the purpose of sailing onboard Indian Tankers only. Currently this provision is applicable for Management level officers only.

Q27: I did my PSCRB and AFF in the year 2012. Do I need to do the refresher courses for PSCRB and AFF now, for the purpose of revalidation of COC?

Answer: No. Refresher courses for the PSCRB, PST, AFF and FPPF are required only if the courses were done five years ago.

Directorate General of Shipping, Mumbai
Examination, Assessment and Certification (EAC) Branch

In your case, the refresher courses to be done in 2017 only. You need not undergo the refresher courses for the purpose of revalidation or certification.

Also note that henceforth, seafarers need to undergo the refresher courses in PST, FFFF, PSCRB and AFF (as applicable) at the intervals not exceeding five years. Shipping companies need to ensure that seafarers have undergone refresher training as per STCW at five yearly intervals, prior placing them onboard ship.

Q28: I have done my sea service through non-RPSL agencies. Can you please confirm whether the service performed through such agencies are acceptable for the purpose of revalidation or issuance of COCs?

Ans: No. According to the directives issued by the Directorate General of Shipping, the seafarers should join the ship only through RPSL agencies approved by the DGS. Hence the sea service performed through non-RPSL agencies will not be recognized by the MMD.

Q29: I am holding a COC of 2nd Mate (FG). I have a sailing experience on Tankers. Can I get a COP in Advanced Training for Tanker cargo operations (Level 2 DCE)?

Ans: Yes. If you have a minimum of three months sailing experience on Tankers as certified deck officer, within the last sixty months, then you are eligible to get a COP in Advanced Training for Tanker cargo operations (For a Type of tanker corresponding to your sailing experience). Additionally, you should have completed the relevant advanced tanker safety course, advanced fire fighting course and other applicable courses listed in the checklist.

Q30: I need to apply for the Level 2 Chemical Tanker DCE (COP in Advanced Training). Is it required to complete the Liquid Cargo Handling Simulator (LCHS) Course for obtaining a Chemical Tanker Level 2 DCE?

Ans: No. The Liquid Cargo Handling Simulator (LCHS) course is required only for obtaining the Level 2 Oil Tanker DCE. Also the LCHS course is applicable only for the Master and deck officers. Therefore LCHS course is not required for obtaining the Level 2 DCE for Chemical Tankers or Liquefied Gas Tankers.

Q31: What is the difference between LCHS operational level and LCHS Management level course? Which course is required for obtaining the Oil Tanker DCE?

Ans: The LCHS operational level course is no more a DGS approved course. For obtaining the COP in Advanced Training (Level 2 DCE) for Oil Tankers cargo operations, all the deck officers are required to complete only the Full Mission LCHS course (Management level – 5 days). The LCHS course is not mandatory for obtaining the COP in Basic Training for Tanker cargo operations (Level 1 DCE).

Q32: I have been sailing as Master on Oil Tankers for many years. I am also having the level 2 DCE for Oil Tankers. In the past I have not done any LCHS course. Can I revalidate my level 2 DCE without the LCHS course?

Ans: Yes. If you have been regularly sailing on Oil Tankers with Level 2 DCE then there is no need for LCHS course for revalidation of DCE.

Directorate General of Shipping, Mumbai
Examination, Assessment and Certification (EAC) Branch

Q33: I have a Level 2 DCE in Oil Tankers. But during the last five years I have been sailing on bulk carriers OR I did not sail in Oil Tankers during the last five years. How do I revalidate my Level 2 DCE in Oil Tankers?

Ans: If you do not have the required minimum period of three months of sailing experience onboard Oil Tankers during the preceding sixty months then you will have to undertake the Advanced Tanker Safety course (TASCO) and LCHS course again for revalidation of Level 2 DCE in Oil Tankers.

Q34: I have a Level 2 DCE in Chemical / Liquefied Gas Tankers. But during the last five years I have been sailing on Containers OR I did not sail in Tankers during the last five years. How do I revalidate my Level 2 DCE in Chemical / Liquefied Gas Tankers?

Ans: If you do not have the required minimum period of three months of sailing experience onboard Chemical / Liquefied Gas Tankers during the preceding sixty months then you will have to undertake the Advanced Chemical Tanker Safety course (CHEMCO) or Advanced Gas Tanker Safety Course (GASCO), as applicable, again for revalidation of Level 2 DCE in Chemical / Liquefied Gas Tankers.

Q35: I have been sailing as Second Officer onboard 'OIL/CHEM Tankers' during the past six months. But in this period, we had carried only clean products and did not get a chance to load any chemicals. Can I get a Level 2 DCE for Chemical Tankers based on this experience?

Ans: No. Although you have sailed on 'OIL/CHEM Tankers', you are not eligible to obtain the Level 2 DCE for Chemical Tankers. For obtaining Level 2 DCE in Chemical Tankers, you should have an experience of carriage of chemicals, listed under IBC code, for a minimum period of three months. Alternatively, one month experience in a supernumerary capacity with three loading and three discharging of chemicals, documented in a Training Record Book, may also be accepted.

Q36: I have a COP in basic training for tanker cargo operations (Level 1 DCE). But I did not get a chance to work onboard tankers during the past five years. How do I revalidate my COP in basic training for tanker cargo operations (Level 1 DCE)?

Ans: You can revalidate the COP in basic training for tanker cargo operations (Level 1 DCE) either by undertaking the Basic Tanker familiarization course or Advanced Tanker Safety course again.

Q37: I am a deck cadet or deck rating. What are the requirements for obtaining the COP in basic training for tanker cargo operations (Level 1 DCE)? Can I apply to the MMD for getting this COP?

Ans: The requirements for obtaining the COP in basic training for tanker cargo operations (Level one DCE) remain same for the officers / trainees / ratings. However, currently, the MMD accepts applications only from the certified officers.

If you are a petty officer, deck cadet or deck rating then you can make an application to the Facilitation Centers established by the INSA / MASSA / FOSMA / ICCSA / CMMI / IMEI, depending upon the company in which you are sailing at present or you will be joining soon.

Q38: I have passed the Chief Mate (FG) written and oral examinations last month. I did my Second mate FG competency course with the new syllabus i.e. in 2011. Subsequently I did my First Mate FG Phase-I and Phase-II courses in 2014 with the new syllabus. Do I still need to undergo the Refresher and Updating training (RUT) of 5 days / 11 days for submitting an application for COC?

Directorate General of Shipping, Mumbai
Examination, Assessment and Certification (EAC) Branch

Ans: No. The RUT course is not required for all those candidates who have completed their Second Mate FG course with the STCW 2010 syllabus i.e. courses completed after March 2011.

Q39: I have completed my First Mate FG grade Phase-I and Phase-II classes recently under STCW 2010 revised syllabus. But I got my Second Mate FG COC prior to 2011 i.e. attended Second Mate FG classes under the STCW 95 (old) syllabus. Do I have to complete the RUT course of 5 days or 11 days duration, to obtain my First Mate FG COC under STCW 2010 with 5 years validity?

Ans: Since you had attended the First Mate FG competency course as per the new (STCW 2010) syllabus, you need to attend only the first 5 days of the RUT course, applicable for operational level officers.

Q40: My CDC or Passport got expired last month. I had already applied for renewal. Is it compulsory to have valid CDC or Passport for the purpose of revalidation of COC or obtaining any other certificate from MMD?

Ans: No. You need not wait for renewal of CDC or Passport for making an application to the MMD for any certification. However, it is your responsibility to ensure that all the necessary documents such as CDC, Passport are valid prior joining any ship.

Q41: I have applied for revalidation of my COC or renewal of my DCE /GMDSS at the MMD in the morning working hours. Is there any specific time do I have to come for collection of my certificate after revalidation or issuance of new certificates?

Ans: CoP is dispatched to the candidate's registered postal address by speed post

Q42: I have applied for my CoC / CoP today morning. My company has told me that I need to fly in the afternoon for joining ship. Is it possible to get the certificate immediately?

Answer: No. Please note that MMD issues more than 100 certificates every day in the shortest possible time frame i.e. within two working days. In order to give due respect to other applicants and to maintain equality, MMD will not issue certificates out of turn to any individuals.

Q43: Is it necessary to update my DG Shipping online profile for making an application to the MMD? How do I create and update my profile in the DGS website?

Ans: Yes. According to the Directives of the DG Shipping, it is compulsory for all the seafarers to register with the e-Governance cell of the DG Shipping and update their profile at regular intervals. Please note that the process of registration is very simple.

You need to go to the website www.dgshipping.gov.in and click the 'Seafarers registration' section under the main heading 'E-Governance.' Upon completion of registration, you can update your profile using the simple steps stated in the website.

Please note that the 'Seafarers Registration' process can be completed easily, if you use 'Internet Explorer' browser.

Q44: I need to apply for my COC revalidation. Somebody told me that I need to get the documents ready only through few of the Photocopy shops located near MMD, otherwise my application will be delayed. Is it true?

Ans: Totally false. Do not believe in such baseless rumors. MMD deals directly with seafarers only. The process of all the above certification is very simple. If you are meeting the requirements then you should get the certificate within two working days. If you have any difficulty in obtaining the certificate from MMD then you may contact the concerned surveyors directly or send an email to the concerned Principal Officer, MMD. Contact details of MMD officials are given in the respective MMD Website

Directorate General of Shipping, Mumbai
Examination, Assessment and Certification (EAC) Branch

Q45: I have cleared by Second Mate FG competency examination in May 2013, and obtained my Second Mate FG COC in June 2013. However, at that time, I got a COC with a validity up-to 31st Dec 2016 only. Do I need to complete the 5- days Refresher and Up-gradation (RUT) course for the Deck Officers for up-gradation of my COC to STCW 2010 standards, and extend the validity for a full five year period?

Ans: No. Please note that the Second Mate FG competency course of 4 months duration, under the new STCW 2010 syllabus, was started from January 2011 itself. Hence the RUT course of 5-days duration, applicable for operational level deck officers, is NOT required for all those candidates who have attended the Second Mate FG Competency course on or after January 2011, for extending the validity of COC for a full five year period. However you are required to complete the other applicable courses such as ECDIS, etc., as given in the online requirements for revalidation and up-gradation of COC.

Q46: I did the full 11-day Refresher and Up-gradation course for the Masters and Deck Officers in the year 2013. Can I revalidate my COC using that course certificate issued in 2013 or do I have to undergo that course again now, in order to extend the validity of COC for a full five year period?

Ans: Please note that Refresher and Up-gradation course (RUT) is not the same as an erstwhile revalidation course. This RUT course need to be done only once by the Masters and Deck officers who have got their COC under the STCW 95 standard to upgrade to the STCW 2010 standards. Hence there is absolute no need for undergoing this course again, under any circumstances.

Also, please note that the RUT course is not required for the Masters and Deck Officers who have completed their entire (from Second Mate FG onwards) competency courses and examination under the STCW 2010 standards. Please refer Q45 for an example.

Q47: I did my TASC0/CHEMCO/GASCO course in 2003. My course certificate refers to the STCW 1995 standards. Do I need to undergo the courses again for up-gradating it to the 2010 standards?

Ans: No. You are not required to undergo any of the STCW courses, including the above-mentioned advanced tanker safety courses again, for up-gradation of same into STCW 2010 standards. Although the model courses have been revised recently, nobody will be required to undergo the courses again. All the course certificates remain valid irrespective of whether STCW 78 or STCW 95 mentioned in the certificates.

Q48: I have given all exams in offline mode and CoC was issued accordingly. Now I want to correct my CoC entries i.e Name, DoB, Indos etc.

Ans: Note:- All Certificates of competency corrections will be done centrally from Directorate General of Shipping
